STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

A suitable legislative framework is the need of the hour for empowering a judicial forum to deal with complaints against Judges of the Supreme Court and High Courts. On the basis of the recommendations made in the 195th Report of the Law Commission of India on the Judges (Inquiry) Bill, 2005, the Bill, namely the Judges (Inquiry) Bill, 2006 has been prepared.

2. It may be recalled that the Judges (Inquiry) Act, 1968 was enacted with a view to lay down a procedure for removal for proved misbehaviour or incapacity of Judges of the High Courts and the Supreme Court by way of address of the Houses of Parliament by the President. The Law Commission of India in its 195th Report has examined the issue of judicial accountability in the light of the law laid down by the Supreme Court in its various judgments, which relate to the interpretation of articles 121, 124 and 217 of the Constitution.

3. The Bill, namely, the Judges (Inquiry) Bill, 2006 is based on the premise that judicial independence is one of the basic fundamentals of the Constitution. Judicial independence and judicial accountability are inseparable. Thus, there is an urgent need of a legislation for establishing a National Judicial Council to look into the allegations of misbehaviour or incapacity of a Judge of the Supreme Court or of a High Court, as the case may be, and to regulate the procedure for such investigation, inquiry and proof in a complaint procedure in addition to the earlier "reference procedure" as contained in the Judges (Inquiry) Act, 1968. In a complaint procedure, a complaint can be made by any person to the Judicial Council against Judges of the Supreme Court (except the Chief Justice of India), Chief Justices and Judges of High Courts. The Judges (Inquiry) Bill, 2006, inter alia, seeks to empower the National Judicial Council for imposing minor measures also. The Bill also seeks to repeal the Judges (Inquiry) Act, 1968.

4. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects.

PRESIDENT'S RECOMMENDATION UNDER ARTICLE 117 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

Clause 2 is the definition clause and it defines for the purposes of certainty in the interpretation of the legislation “Code of Conduct” as the guidelines issued by the Council under sub-section (1) of section 36, “complaint procedure” as a procedure that is initiated by way of complaint; “incapacity” as “physical or mental incapacity” that is likely to be of a permanent character; “inquiry” as inquiry for proof of misbehavior or incapacity; “misbehavior” as wilful or persistent conduct which brings dishonour or disrepute to the judiciary, or wilful or persistent failure to perform the duties of a Judge or wilful abuse of judicial office, corruption, lack of integrity, moral turpitude and includes violation of Code of Conduct; and “reference procedure” as procedure which is initiated by way of a motion for removal which is referred by the Speaker or the Chairman under sub-section (2) of section 11.

Clause 3 provides for establishment of National Judicial Council consisting of (a) the Chief Justice of India – Chairperson; (b) two senior-most Judges of the Supreme Court to be nominated by the Chief Justice of India – Members; and (c) two Chief Justices of the High Courts to be nominated by the Chief Justice of India – Members.
